Date of transfer to A.N college-26.10.2021

I have joined my service as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Botany, S.U college, Hilsa and worked there from 11.11.2019 to 25.10.2021. I got transferred to Department of Botany, A. N. College, Patna from 26.10.2021. I had completed my M.Sc from JNU and I joined soon after my thesis submission. I love teaching and taking classes from B.Sc to Ph.D in the college. Being a teacher, I am conscious of my responsibilities and try to implement that on the ground. I always motivates students to study hard and prepare for central universities like JNU, DU, HCU, BHU.

I try my level best to maintain the dignity of my profession and the institution.

I am also continuing my research work writing some publication and to bring some projects in college.
